Dear Friend

We rec'd yesterday a box left by the Express Man, containing a Picture of yourself in goods order. which we presume of course must have come from you. we all think it an excellent likeness. please accept our thanks for the valuable present and the kind feelings which prompted it. it will never be necessary to look upon it. to remind us of the original. whom we have known from childhood and only to love and respect for his many virtues. I see by last Eve'g Journal. that you are to address. The once proud & haughty citizens of Boston

I hope the audience were as well pleased as all were here with your last Lecture. which must have given you much satisfaction. particularly when you call to mind the feelings in former days on such occasions we hope you may long live in health to Enjoy the rewards of your life long labours. with Kind regards to your wife & family.
